

SECONDHAND SMOKE FROM VAPING

Vapes have only been around since 2003, which means the long-term effects from these harmful devices are still unknown.

What we do know: secondhand smoke from vapes can be as detrimental, since it contains nicotine, formaldehyde, and carcinogens, which are linked to ADDICTION and CANCER.

For more information, send us an email at ucipercuop@gmail.com or visit our social media accounts @ucipeds on Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter!